

INTERIOR & CONTRACT TEXTILES

JEIN IS HOSPITALITY

Since 1977, we have been designing and producing textile solutions tailored to the needs of architects, interiors, hotels, cruise ships, airlines, restaurants and retirement homes. Each product is an idea that puts the human essence at the center.

JEIN IS CRAFTSMANSHIP

The passion we put into our work is the result of the importance we give to quality and handmade workmanship. The human and emotional factors are crucial for the design and realization of our products.

JEIN IS MADE IN ITALY

We believe that we can change things or make things better.

Made in Italy is synonymous with high standards of design and quality, thus providing a guarantee of both the products and customer service.

JEIN IS TRADITION AND INNOVATION

Our textile manufacturing tradition using the most innovative yarns and techniques allows us to accurately meet the customer's needs.

We think that it is important to explore new ideas and products and keep up with new trends. It is an ongoing evolutionary process.

JEIN IS TAILOR-MADE

We are constantly collaborating with different international brand designers in order to develop the customized textile solutions with the attention to the desired details, personalized finishing, materials and packaging. Our company offers a range of exclusive products upon request
